Named 2022 Massachusetts REALTOR® of the Year

2022 North Central MA Association of REALTORS® President awarded title at Annual Awards Dinner

FOXBOROUGH, Mass. – September 29, 2022 – The Massachusetts Association of REALTORS® (MAR) recently honored Nicholas Pelletier, REALTOR® with Keller Williams Realty North Central in Leominster, Mass., with the 2022 Massachusetts REALTOR® of the Year award. Pelletier was presented with the honor at MAR’s Professional Awards and Recognition Dinner, which was held earlier this month at The Sea Crest Beach Hotel in Falmouth.

The state’s REALTOR® of the Year is selected annually from among the nominees of the 12 local associations of REALTORS® and more than 26,000 REALTORS® in Massachusetts. Judging for the award is based on volunteerism to the REALTOR® organization on the local, state, and national levels, service to the local community, and business accomplishments, ultimately awarding the REALTOR® member and applicant who has made the greatest contribution to the advancement of the real estate profession and the community at large.

"Nicholas Pelletier is a leader at the local and state level, showcasing his dedication to the industry and his colleagues by leaving a remarkable impact on both his community and legislators in the area," said MAR CEO Theresa Hatton. "His strong leadership has enabled his association to increase participation and involvement by 25%. His local association has met every mark and goal within its 2022 strategic plan, and the member who nominated this candidate stated this achievement was due to Pelletier’s ‘high energy and knack for new ideas and programs.’"

After spending six years as a biomedical engineer, Pelletier decided to pursue his passion for real estate full-time. Since, he has become heavily involved at the local level, serving as the 2022 North Central MA Association of REALTORS® (NCMAR) President, a member of the 2022 NCMAR Board of Directors, the 2022 NCMAR Charitable Foundation President, among others. At the state level, his involvement includes serving on the Forms Content Advisory Committee, the Government Affairs Committee, and the Strategic Planning Task Force. Not only was Pelletier nominated for this coveted MAR award and successfully won but was also a nominee for the 2022 NCMAR Good Neighbor Award.

Aside from his involvement in association activities, Pelletier volunteers his time to help those in need. He founded Start Above, an initiative through Rise Above, which helps children who are aging out of foster care furnish their first apartment. He is also a member of the St. Bernard High School Board of Trustees, which saved the school from imminent closure.

Also presented at MAR’s Professional Awards and Recognition Dinner were the 2022 MAR Good Neighbor Award and the 2022 Milton H. Shaw Distinguished Service Award. To learn more about these recipients and the Massachusetts Association of REALTORS® visit www.marealtor.com.
